Ethan,

How's everything? I wish your Christmas break was tomarrow, I miss you so much. I think about all the times going to Karate & back & going to the Post office every day.

Its the little things in life that you never forget & things that Really mean a lot to you.

There is one thing about being full time RV'ers people sure do like to talk. Every where you go people will strike up a conversation with you. Our new neighbor is from South Georgia & he told us about some Really nice campgrounds on Lakes & Rivers in Georgia. Sounds Really Nice & he showed us some pictures of them, we might go there next winter or the following winter. I think Mom would like to spend some time in Florida, & I know she wants to go out North West. too.

Your Mom went into a petshop yesterday & fell in love with a ~~cat~~ tailess cat.

Dont worry I talked her out of it. I don't want our furniture tore up by cats paws.

I don't know if I told ya we went into an Ollie's store that advetises how prices on Everything. Well its like a Walmart store with prices about ½ what they are at Wallmart. They don't sell food just Dry goods but there prices sure are low.

Well I'll close for now, your Mom & I love you very much & we sure do miss you more than any other child who left home.

Be good & do the best you can, thats what people exspect from other people.

Love Mom & Dad
